

March 29, 1939.

Mr. Jack F. Dukes,
558 Massachusetts Ave.,
Boston, Mass.

Dear Sir:

I am writing to apologize for the short notice I gave you to make arrangements to take your Boy to Training camp. I had originally planned to send the pitchers 10 days in advance of the rest of the Team, it was necessary at the last minute to change plans and take the bus, which necessitated carrying the entire group.

If you are still desirous of your Boy having a try-out with the Club, you can arrange to have him here in Newark upon our return and we can keep him here a week or so and ~~take~~ ~~him~~ ~~over~~. He should, of course, be in condition to begin playing immediately.

Again ~~apologizing~~ for any inconvenience I may have caused you.

Yours very truly,

EM:CCJ